

Executors

An executor is the trusted person who carries out your wishes. Choose someone responsible and willing.

Primary executor

Backup executor

If the primary executor is unable to serve, the backup takes over.

Choosing the right person

Pick someone organized and willing to handle paperwork. It's often a close family member or trusted friend.

Back

Continue